

05 - VOCABULARY: A LIST OF PHRASES FOR ACCOMODATION

In big city, people usually chose to live in blocks of flats (us: apartment blocks).

People who have not enough money to buy a house normally live in rented accommodations.

It has been my dream to own my own home in a building complex before I'm turning 25.

My dream home should have two balconies, where I can experience the city's view with my family.

An ideal house should have a back garden, then people who live in can get closer to the nature every time.

Their new flat has 5 spacious rooms, which is really comfortable for them to live in

The house that she was interested in is really expensive, then She had to take out a mortgage.

One my favorite is doing up an old property, each time I do this, I feel a sense of satisfaction.

Generally, a rented accommodation requires that people who hire a house need to pay rent in advance.

I need you to provide me a permanent address, so I could make a contact with you when is needed.

when I'm turning 25, I would like to settle down and get on the property ladder.

The house is equipped with mod cons, which can make people'lives more comfortable.

I'm starting to move into the new house in 28th September.

In the modern world, many people prefer to live in the suburbs, because the environment is much more fresher.