

09 - VOCABULARY: MONEY AND PAYMENTS

Do they have an ATM service (a cash machine) in their branch ?

I used a cash card for that payment.

I'll pay with a bank transfer to make sure it is done.

I always keep the receipt in case I'm asked to provide it in another shop.

He pulled out a big, fat wallet stuffed with bank notes.

Are you paying by cash or by credit card?

For the next two years, I have to pay an installment of 200 euros every month to a bank that had financed my higher studies

The advisor charged a very high fee for his intervention.

We still owe $1,000 to the bank for our car.

You use a debit card in much the same way as a credit card but instead of receiving credit after making your purchase, the funds are automatically withdrawn from your bank account.

He applied for a bank loan to pay for his new car.

His parents took out a mortgage and bought a house.

I created a standing order with my bank to pay my landlord every month.

They paid a deposit for the furniture in the store and agreed to pay the balance on delivery.

I prefer not to buy anything on credit since I hate the idea. But my son uses my credit card all the time.

He took me out for lunch and footed the bill

Miss Thurstone always haggles with the baker to save five cents on every purchase.