

12 - VOCABULARY: WORDS RELATED TO MEMORY

I am now 50 years of age but can remember my first day at school quite clearly

I am very busy for the next few days and could forget about your request. Please remind me tomorrow and I will try and help you.

He often wrote short notes to himself as a reminder to do something the next day.

Do you have a good or bad memory? Can you remember things easily? Maybe this picture will help to jog your memory.

Her husband died suddenly after 40 years of marriage. However she has happy memories of their life together.

The teacher gave them plenty of homework and they had to memorize (learn by heart) a number of poems for their examination.

Sorry, I don't remember. Sometimes I have a memory like a sieve.

Oh, what's it called? Don't tell me ... it's on the tip of my tongue.

His name rings a bell, but I can't remember where I heard it before.

This will prove an important point to bear in mind in the discussions of Chapter 6.

He remembes to call his mother from the office!

He remembers calling his mother from the office

What was her name? I'm afraid it slipped my mind

There are words that are difficult to memorize. They just go in one ear and out the other